

After long hours of magazine selling by all the seniors and designing and editing by the members of the Annual Staff, the Class of 1959 presents its yearbook, The Chief.

The theme developed when it was decided that the only way to capture the real story of the school would be to snap pictures without the students knowing about them. In this way the pictures would seem very natural and unposed.

Did you get "taken" by the hidden camera? The only way to find out is to look through this book and see. But as they say on television, "No one escapes the eye of the CANDID CAMERA."

Industrial Arts Building

In this relatively new building on the campus, which was completed in 1954, are such classes as industrial arts, which includes mechanical drawing, woodworking, metal working, and agriculture classes.

High School Building

This year Greenville High School has the largest enrollment ever in the history of the school. Every morning 770 students enter the portals of G.H.S. in search of a better education. Of these 231 are freshmen; 217, sophomores; 186 juniors; and 136 seniors.

"I forgot my books again," says Karen Thomas as she rings the bell for the janitors.

Memorial Hall

Since 1911 the St. Clair Memorial Hall has served the students of Greenville High School and the people of Greenville in many ways. Again this year sounds of music, speeches, applause, laughter, and even cheers echoed through the auditorium from the community concerts, musicals, plays, and assemblies which will never be forgotten.

Carnegie Library

Carnegie Library dates back to 1903 when Andrew Carnegie, Henry St. Clair, and the citizens of Greenville gave enough money to build a public library for Greenville. The Library now has about 53,900 books, of which there is an average distribution of about 300 a day. The registered borrowers, including many high school students, number about 9,254.

Stadium

A rather distant part of Greenville High School is the stadium. It was built in 1935 by the Public Works Administration, which was an agency of the government to provide jobs for those who had lost them during the depression. This picture shows what the stadium looks like before the throngs of enthusiastic spectators literally pack the stands during football season in the fall.

Administration and Faculty

During a school year a student spends just about as much time with his teachers and school administrators as with his parents. Next to the home the school contributes more to the maturing of youth than any other institution.

It is therefore imperative that the teachers and administrators be a group of individuals with superior education, unquestionable morals, emotional stability, and a definite yearning to be dedicated to youth.

Greenville is extremely fortunate in having men and women in the teaching profession with these qualities. We express our thanks for their dedication, and may we through our lives remember them and their efforts

Board of Education

Elected by the voters of Greenville public school district, the Board of Education has the responsibility of supervising the care and maintenance of the public schools of Greenville.

The five board members, who meet at least once a month throughout the year, have the duties of selecting well qualified superintendents, principals, and teachers. They approve recommendations concerning the selection of textbooks; they set up the courses of study for the entire school system, and supervise the care of the city's public schools.

The Board of Education puts before the voters all school operating levies and bond issues after they have spent time thoroughly studying the existing situations and needed improvements.

President of Board Dr. R. O. Wilson

Dr. F. H. Cox Mr. Harold Snider

Robert Kolp, as Clerk of the Greenville Board of Education keeps minutes of Board meetings and handles all communication of the Board. He also keeps accounts of all district school funds, signs checks, and handles pay vouchers, and gives monthly statements to the Board concerning receipts and expenditures. Mrs. Brown, who serves as his secretary, assists him in these duties.

Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Hensel

A native of Preble County, Beryl Hensel has been in school work for 17 years. The last 12 years have been spent in the field of school administration. Prior to coming to Greenville he served six years as Superintendent of the Versailles schools.

Mr. Hensel holds Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts degrees from Ohio State University, and in addition has pursued graduate work at Miami University in the area of school administration. He is quite active in the five professional organizations to which he belongs, and is also active in community affairs. Reading and golf are his hobbies.

Mr. Hensel has a reputation for being democratic, and he believes that administration is a service activity through which the objectives of the educational process may be more fully and efficiently realized.

He is quite happy to be in Greenville. It has always impressed him with its fine schools and community attitudes which make it a desirable place in which to live and rear a family. He is impressed with the high morale of the student body and teachers. His objective is to make the Greenville Public Schools the best in every way so that students, teachers, and community can continue to be justly proud of their schools.

Assistant Superintendent of Schools Mr. Maxwell

William Maxwell, who has been associated with the Greenville Partic Schools for the ast 17 years as principal of the Last Hementary School, became Assist int Separate ident of Schools at the beginning of the second semester.

Prior to his coming to Greenville. Mr. Maxwell was a tea per and principal for taxe vests, which makes a total of 22 years in the teaching profession.

The dates of the new assistant's perinterability will include supervising the non-certificated personnel, building maintenance, transportation, cafeterias, etc.

He holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Ohio State University, and a Master of Arts degree from Miami University. His favorite pastimes are golf and traveling.

Mr. Kemper

Garland W. Ken per has ocen principal of Greenville High School since 1954. He graduated from Western Kentucky State College in 1936, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics, history, and instrumental music. A Master of Arts degree in education was received from the University of Kentucky in 1946. Mr. Ken per has been engaged in the teaching profession as a teacher, bard director, and principal in both elementary schools and high schools for twenty-tour years. He has served as a full time high school principal for the past twelve years. Previous to his position in Greenville, he was the first principal of the new consolidated Harrison County High School, Cynthiana, Kentucky, 1950-54.

Mr. Kemper Lis many holdies, some of which are hintage tishing, picnicking, cooking charcoaled steaks, traveling, and reading.

Since coming to Greenville he has seen an entire student body come and go. The most significant change he has observed is a remarkable improvement in the general attitude of the student body toward the importance of education and toward the development of better study habits and skills.

Son e of his duties include administrative and supervisory functions relating to students, teachers, and non-teaching personnel.

Mr. Hensel's Secretaries

Mrs. Elberta Eisenhower and Miss Cassel are filling the jobs of societaries to the Superintendent of Schools for their second and thirty-fifth years, respectively. Their duties include: filing, answering the phone, typing letters from dictation, issuing purchase orders for educational supplies, issuing work permits, preparing and mailing tuition bills, cutting stencils, and other secretarial duties. As outside interests Mrs. Eisenhower likes to play cards and watch TV. Miss Cassel gives music lessons and enjoys bridge.

Mr. Kemper's Secretaries

Mr. Kemper's secretaries in the office this year are Mrs. Jean Howell and Mrs. Jean Baird.

Mrs. Howell, who has been employed at Greenville High School for two years, is kept very busy with permanent records, correspondence, and general office duties. In her more leisure hours music, knitting, reading, and bowling occupy her time.

A newcomer this year, Mrs. Baird has taken over the duties of controlling the G.H.S. Activities Fund, taking numerous inventories, and helping in general filing and office procedures. Reading, bridge, sports, and TV are Mrs. Baird's outside interests.

Dean of Boys

James Holzapfel, as Dean of Boys, takes care of the boys' daily attendance records. In addition he helps with schedule changes, conducts freshman orientation classes, serves as an advisor for Student Council, and is on the Principal's Advisory Council.

Mr. Holzapfel was graduated from Miami University with a degree of Bachelor of Science in Education.

Attention all classes!

Dean of Girls

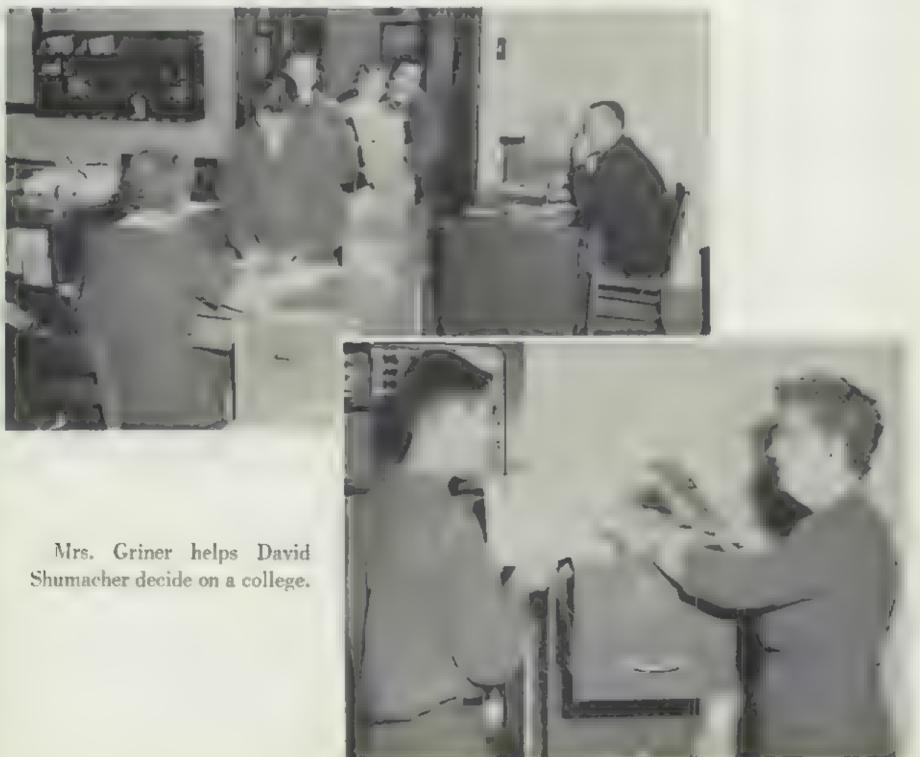

Dean of Girls, Kathryn Griner, has many duties in this capacity. Besides keeping the girls' daily attendance records. Mrs. Griner teaches freshman orientation classes, helps with schedule changes, assists the seniors in choosing colleges or vocations, serves as an advisor for Student Council, and is on the Principal's Advisory Council.

Mrs. Griner was graduated from Bowling Green State University with a Bachelor of Science in Education degree

Bowling Green State University with a Bachelor of Science in Education degree with majors in English, history, and foreign languages. She also received a Master of Arts degree in French from the University of Michigan and a Guidance Counselor's Certificate from Miami University.

Mr. Holzapfel looks busy!

Classes

"Senior rah!" and "Junior rah!" are some of the yells resounding in Greenville High from time to time. Of course, following them immediately are the wild cries, "Yeah '61!" and "Yeah '62!" Yes, there are definitely classes in dear old G.H.S.

Each class sponsors its own activities which are usually the biggest events in the year to the members of that class. Whether it is parties, dances, proms, or even Sneak Days, there is always a lot of work to be done in putting them on; but the end results are well worth the work.

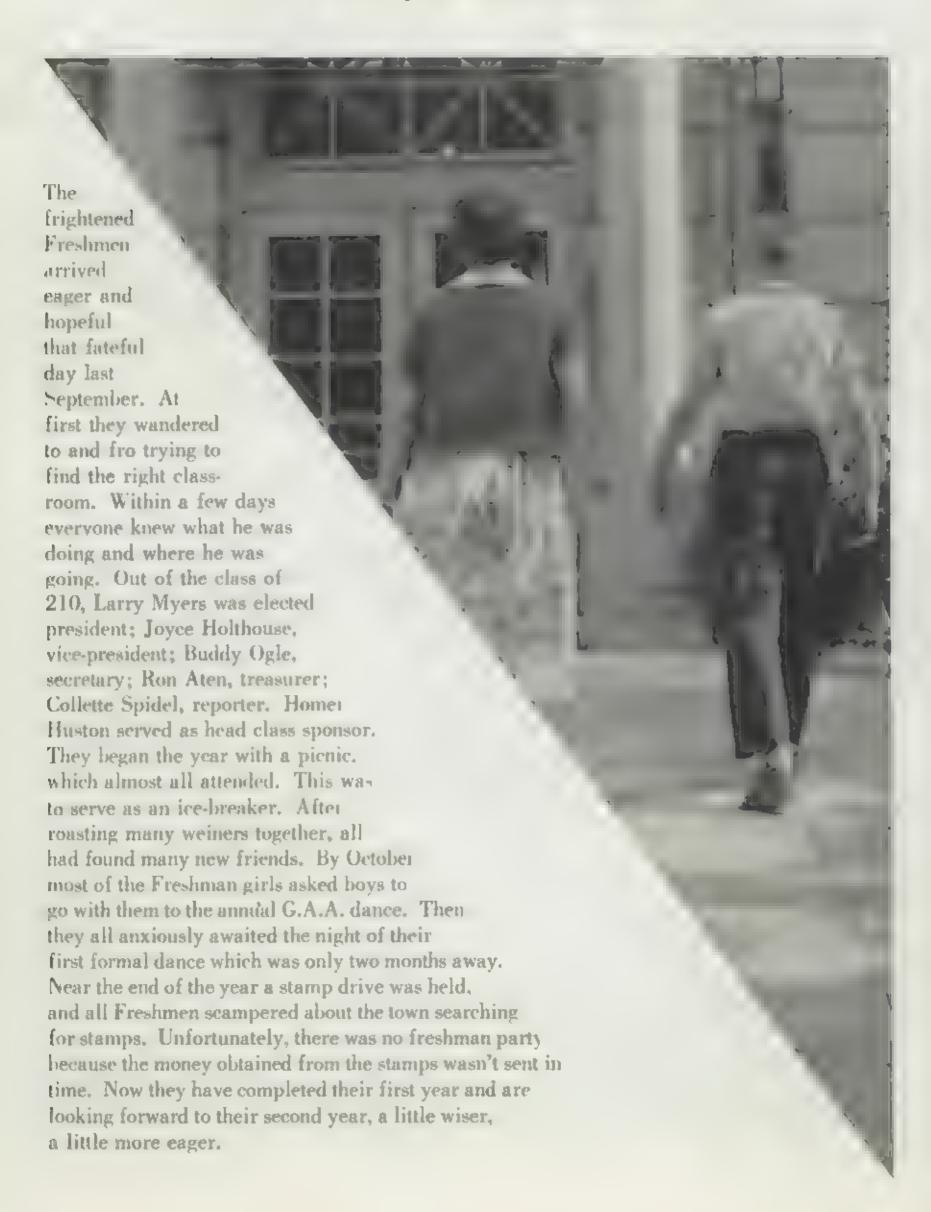

Even though each person possesses a loyalty toward his own class, he holds an even bigger loyalty to his school. "Yeah, Greenville!"

Uskers

At the end of the first semester of the junior year all the grades are averaged, and the top thirteen girls in the class receive the honor of being an usher. They usher from the senior class play until the next year at the senior class play. The two girls who rank next scholastically serve as substitute ushers. The ushers serve at all programs sponsored by the school and community held at the St. Clair Memorial Hall.

Senior Scholarship Team

One hundred twenty-six Darke County students took the Senior State Scholarship Test given in January. Greenville High School had ten Seniors who placed in the top twenty in the county and four who received honorable mention in the state.

"A moment of silence in respect to OUR flag."

Commencement

Commencement—the end? No, the beginning of our own lives—our very own. Until this time our lives have been chiefly directed by adults around us. Now we will have to make our own decisions.

This important ceremony began as the Seniors proudly marched along the football field lined with the Juniors forming a Guard of Honor; two Junior boys served as the; bearers; and the high school band furnished the maste. The Reverend Phillip Lauver of the Brettfren Church gave the Invocation and the Benediction. The speaker for the evening was Dr. Earl C. Metz, head of the Department of Education at Capital University, who was introduced by Superintendent Beryl Hensel. Principal Garland G. Kemper presented each Senior to Dr. Robert Wilson, president of the Board of Education, who gave each Senior his diploma. After Commencement, the Seniors filed out as the Juniors again formed the Guard of Honor.

Kent Teaford Valedictorian receives diploma.

Baccalaureate

On the evening of May 31, 1959, the Baccalaureate services for the Class of 1959 were held in the St. Clair Memorial Hall with The Reverend Harold Huffman of the First Presbyterian Church delivering the class sermon. "Where Will You Lead." The Seniors were dressed in the traditional caps and gowns of school colors-boys in green and girls in white—as they solemnly listened to the sermon. The Junior members of A Cappella sang the Baccalaureate anthem. Lo. A Voice To Heaven Sounding. The Reverend Frank Thomas, pastor of the First Congregational Christian Church, read the Holy Scriptures; and The Reverend Samuel Hoeflick of the St. Paul's Lutheran Church gave the Invocation and Benediction. Miss Otilla McGreevey played the Processional and Recessional as the Seniors walked to and from the auditorium.

Organizations

Besides classroom work a school has other ways of teaching. Such things as music appreciation, interest in the out-of-doors and sports, techniques of newspaper writing, or even methods of reclining as the Romans did are best learned through the work of the school clubs and organizations.

These organizations are designed to unite students who have interests along the same lines into working groups. There are more than 20 of these groups, both large and small, in G.H.S. that have many activities and projects making them definitely worthwhile.

Because of organizations Greenville High School is an extremely busy place, but without them school just wouldn't be the same.

Members of the Annual Staff are nominated by the faculty and elected by the Senior class. The staff members then elect a junior representative who tains experience by working with the staff throughout the year.

To finance the annual the staff sponsors a magazine drive, but the major task of this group is writing and editing the school year-book, the Chief. Mrs. Kathryn Griner serves as advisor for the Annual Staff.

To Mrs. Griner.

We, the members of the Annual Staff and the rest of the senior class, would like to thank you sincerely for all the help you have given us on the 1959 Chief. We will never forget the way you gave so willingly of your time every Tuesday night to be the Annual Staff advisor.

Each class elects two boys and two girls to serve on the Student Council. They strive throughout the year to promote better understanding between the students and the school administration.

As in the past, the sixteen member council sponsored the Christmas Seal drive, the Polio drive, honor study halls, the hall monitor system, and concessions at several basketball games. In addition to these traditional duties, the council revised the Greenville High School handbook, acted as school guides on B.I.E. Day and Parents' Visitation Days, and also journeyed to Troy, Ohio, to attend the Miami Valley Student Council Workshop.

National Honor Society

The place. Memorial Hall auditorium. The time: 9:30 a.m. on March 4, 1959. The event: Twenty-Sixth annual tap chapel for National Honor Society.

At this moment, Howard Allman, accompanied by the organ playing "Green and White," came slowly down the aisle and tapped Betty Albrecht on the shoulder to start National Honor Society initiation.

After Betty, each new member in his turn was likewise tapped, escorted across the stage by one of the senior society members elected last year (Carol Maxwell, Sharon Mohler, Joe Suter, Mark Wagner, Layne Peiffer, Susie Goubeaux, Kent Teaford, and Judy Brown) and presented their stole and pin by Superintendent Hensel and Principal Kemper, respectively. The speaker was Reverend Calvin Rodeheffer, pastor of the Greenville Methodist Church.

Students are elected into National Honor Society by the faculty on the basis of outstanding scholarship, leadership, character and service.

This year the following thirteen seniors were chosen: Esther Paulus, Mara Jekabsons, Sandra Shepherd, Elaine Klinger, Sandra Raudabaugh, Roger Nealeigh, Debbie Zeller, Betty Albrecht, Dan Miley, Martha Brumbaugh, Mike Karn, Jill Steinle, Joan Buchy.

One of the most active and most important clubs in Greenville High School is the Reporters' Club. The job of this club is to inform the public as to what is going on in the high school. Besides spending a great deal of time publishing the G.H.S. ADVOCATE, the Reporters' Club also puts out a magazine six times a year, strictly for entertainment, called the "Virtor."

Mothers enjoy "Hello Party"

Teens' Christian Club is an organization which invites all high school girls to join in Christian fellowship.

At the beginning of the year the girls and their mothers attended a getaquainted party called a "Hello Party." The club also put on a religious assembly at Thanksgiving that was designed to make the whole student body realize just what there is to be thankful for in these United States. "Glacca Morra" was the name of the T.C.C. spring semiformal dance. Ending the year off with a salute to the seniors of the club, the T.C.C. mothers gave their daughters a tea.

To make money for their club treasury this year. Art Club made handmade Christmas cards. They also helped the other clubs and classes by spending time on decorations for various social functions. Other activities included a trip to the Dayton Art Institute, a Christmas party, and a field trip to Bear's Mill to paint. Instead of a spring banquet, they had a picture party in which members masqueraded to portray famous pictures.

Sponsored by the Student Council, this group is chosen from study halls and assigned to certain first floor posts throughout the day. The Hall Monitors' duties are to keep students without passes from roaming

Future Farmers of America is a club whose purpose is to promote interest and knowledge in the field of agriculture. This organization, open to any boy in the high school, is highly active in school life. This year the F.F.A. sponsored a Parliamentary Procedure Contest, livestock judging contests, a Highway Safety Contest, and a fund-raising Christmas card drive in order to earn money to send Christmas baskets to needy people. The boys combined with the Future Homemakers of America in sponsoring a Parents' Night, an assembly and two skating parties.

The F.F.A. basketball team ended their season with a fine record of six wins and two losses, the best record in recent years. They also started a new tradition by electing the first chapter F.F.A. Sweetheart, Marilyn Meyer. Marilyn was aw. ided a white F.F.A. jacket in their March assembly.

Following the school year, a picnic was held at LeSourdsville as a climax to the year's program.

Sports

School sports are always a lot of fun to both the players and the spectators. But a good sports program offer- much more than fun.

By participating in sports a player learns to take orders and carry them out to the best of his ability, to think quickly and act decisively, to know the meaning of discipline, to work with others as a team, to smile when things go against his team, to respect and demand respect of his fellow teammates, and to make real and lasting friendships with squad members.

The spirit behind the teams is the student body. Without their interest and support, sports wouldn't be very enjoyable to the players. Imagine an exciting basketball game without loud cheers and screams of enthusiasm from the cheering sections. Yes, high school sports are geared so that both the players and the spectators enjoy themselves immensely and take a greater pride in their school.

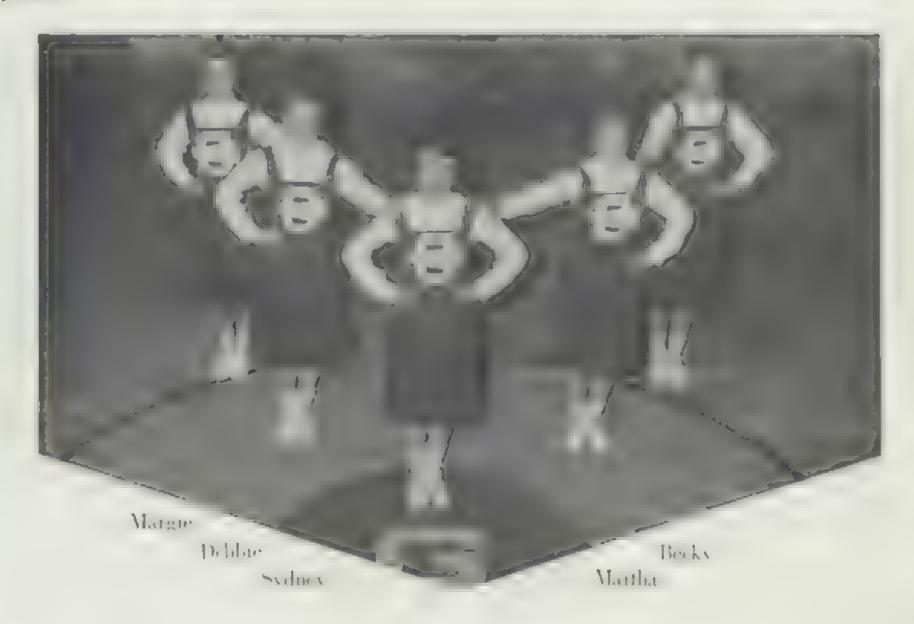

On the taght before the homeconing game the stadent body held a bonfire pep rally behind the stadium and a dummy Piqua player was burned in effigy.

Tony Ware took over the job of head football coach in the fall of 1958. 'Coach Ware has been in the business for nine years, since his graduation from West Virginia University in 1950. The father of three children, Mr. Ware also coaches junior high basketball.

Tony DiRocco, a native of Pennsylvania and a graduate of Wittenberg College, has served seven years on the Greenville coaching staff. Coach DiRocco serves as assistant football coach and is in charge of the golf team, which has won two consecutive M.V.L. championship...

Richard Marshall completed his second year at G.H.S. as head basketball coach and junior high track and football coach. A graduate of Wilmington College, Mr. Marshall has been coaching for twelve years. In that time, his teams have won a total of seventeen trophies, including the last two Piqua Holiday Tournaments.

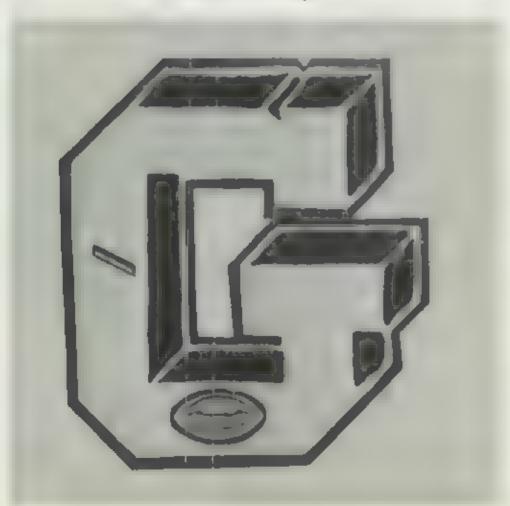

John Suba, in his first season at Greenville, fulfilled duties as assistant football coach and as freshman basketball coach. Coach Suba is a native of Pennsylvania and attended college at Davis-Elkins and West Virginia University. Mr. Suba and his wife have three children.

Lloyd Fasick has been on the G.H.S. coaching staff for five years. Coach Fasick graduated from high school in Darke County and attended Manchester College in Indiana. He serves as baseball and reserve basketball coach.

A vital part of the Greenville High School athletic setup is the office of athletic director, held by James Holzapfel. One of Mr. Holzapfel's most important jobs is setting up the football and basketball schedules. In addition, he must secure the stadium and gym needs for the games, and hire the officials for home games. Other duties include keeping financial records for all sports and acting as secretary at meetings of the Athletic Board of Control. Mr. Holzapfel also serves as track and cross country coach.

In his first year as head football coach at Greenville High, Coach Ware and his team compiled the best won-lost record G.H.S. has seen in the last three years. The Wave got off to a fast start, winning two non-league games. As a result of the victory over Celina, the Little Brown Jug was returned to the school trophy case. In Miami Valley League competition, Greenville finished higher than in the two previous seasons. Two assistant coaches, Howard Allman and John Suba, were also new to G.H.S. this year and contributed a great deal to the success of the team.

Greenville High School Golf Team

This year's G.H.S. golfers outshone all other school teams, past and present. In regular season play, the linksmen swept eleven straight dual matches. In the process. they outscored their opponents 1481/2 to 31½. They also copped the M.V.L. title in the league tournament for the second consecutive year. Next came the district meet, and the Wave finished second to qualify for the state tournament in Columbus. There they competed against the best high school golf teams in the state, and proved themselves superior to all but one, to finish in the runner-up spot. The five top men on the team were as follows: Skip Wille, Kent Teaford, and Bud Sink, seniors; and Stuart Hughes and John Timmons, juniors. All five saw extensive action, with no set first four being used by Coach DiRocco. Hughes was medalist in the M.V.L. meet, and Wille led the team in the state tournament.

Student Life

The Chief and his "candid camera" probably had the most fun taking pictures for the new Student Life section which is devoted to informal shots taken around the school and at school activities.

Since an annual is a memory book, it should capture the students as they really are. This section shows the informal side of the students of Greenville High through candid shots taken in classes, in the halls, at assemblies, at games, and at special events like dances and Homecoming.

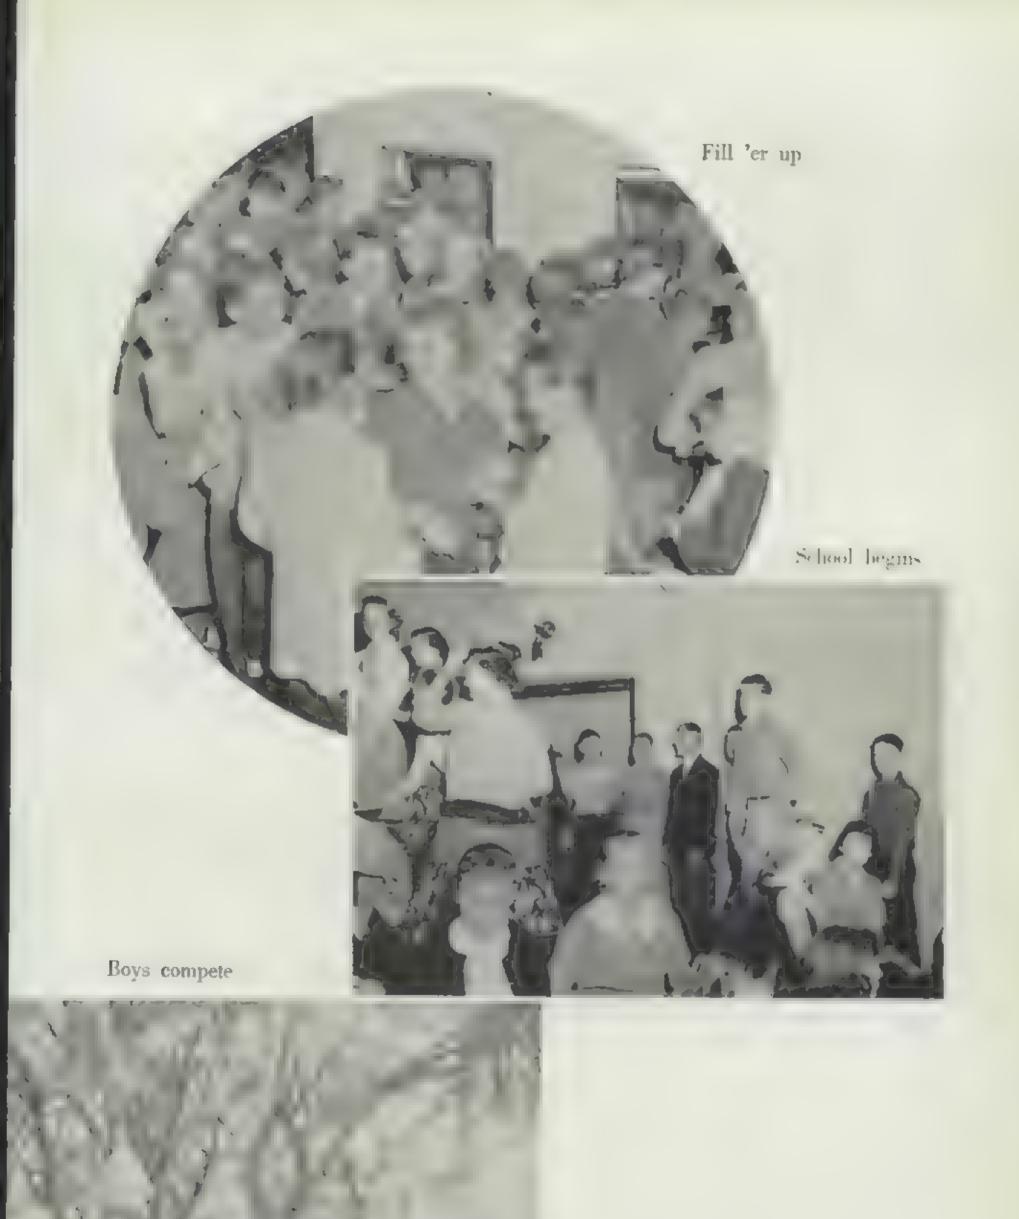

To find out the answers to such questions as, "Is Ross Gruber really a giant?" or "Who was selected to be Annual King and Queen?" you had better hurry and look through the section on Student Life.

Homecoming

One of the highlights of the Homecoming game—Greenville vs. Piqua—October 17. was the crowning of the 1958-59 Greenville High School Homecoming Queen. The queen was selected by the students. About a week prior to the homecoming game each student was given a ballot containing a list of all the senior girls and was instructed to vote for just one girl. The seven girls receiving the most votes were elected candidates for queen. The girl with the most votes was the queen.

On October 9, the names of the candidates were announced, but the identity of the queen was not made known until the halftime of the Homecoming football game.

At the specified moment the G.H.S. Band marched down the field and formed a crown in center field. At the same time a beautiful array of convertibles, donated for the event by local citizens and driven by classmates of the girls, circled the tield. Each convertible carried a cardidate for queen. Tension ran high in the audience as to who would be crowned. Each gul looked beautiful in her new suit adorned with the symbolic white chrysanthemum. The convertibles stopped—the last girl to be escorted from her car would be crowned. The guls were escorted from their cars by senior boys. The court was presented inside the crown, formed by the band, and finally. Sharon Mohler, the queen, was escorted into the crown by Senior Class President. Roger Marker. She was presented with a large bouquet of roses by her escort. The royal crown was placed on her head by the 1957-58. Homecoming queen, Jane Hufford.

Plink! Plink! That is the sound of coins being dropped into the cans labeled "Carol," "Sue," and "Mary Jo." Each penny counted one vote for the girls who represented Future Farmers of America, "G" Association, and Hi-Y, respectively.

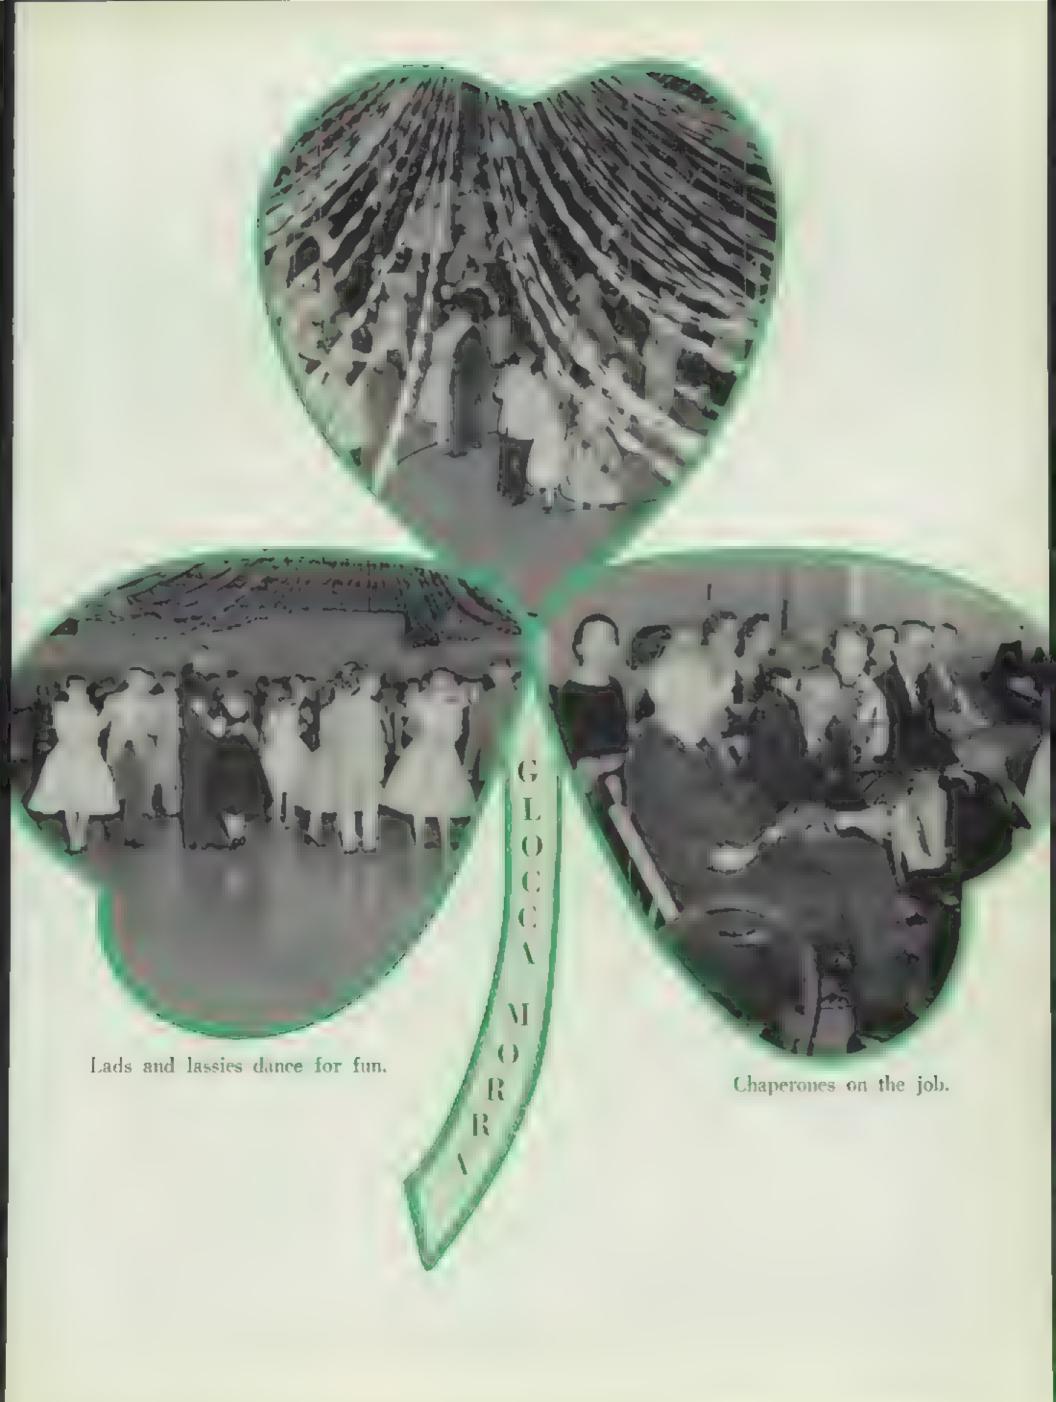

Each year the Student Council sponsors this Polio Drive and a benefit dance following the game at which the queen is crowned. This year $168.00 was donated for the Polio Fund.

Garry Moore—the judge

Garry Moore, the famous television master of ceremonies, was the celebrity chosen to be the first person to select an Annual King and Queen in this new feature of the Greenville High School Chief.

Judging strictly from the pictures sent to him of all the members of the senior class. We Moore chose Mar lyn Meyer as Queen and Ken Baker as Kirg.

To reign on their court he selected Joy Lindamood, Becky Vietor, Lucille Bentler, Jill Steinle, Debbie Zeller, Ray Spurlock, Tom Riegel, Mark Wagner, Kent Teaford. and Pete Johnson as the seniors who were "next best" as far as looks in their pictures go.

Queen Marilyn

Queen Marilyn Meyer came to Greenville High from West Alexandria at the beginning of her junior year. Before coming to G.H.S., Queen Marilyn was quite active as a cheerleader and was also elected to the Homecoming Court, as the sophomore representative. Since becoming a part of G.H.S. Marilyn has been a member of the marching band and concert band and served as typist for the Annual Staff. Marilyn also received the honor of being elected the Sweetheart of the Greenville chapter of Future Farmers of America.

King Ken

King Ken Baker was a student at Greenville High all four years. He was a member of the football. basketball, and baseball teams his freshman year and was also a football player his sophomore year. Ken has helped out with the plays, musicals, and assemblies all four years by being a member of the stage crew.

Uppeel Tis Donel

Yes, the '59 Chief is finally completed! It was a great amount of work, but we think it was worth it and hope that you do too.

Of course, we never would have completed the first page if it weren't for the help and constant urging of Mrs. Griner. Miss Day also aided us a great deal with our magazine drive in the fall. Another person whom we couldn't have gotten along without was Dan Miley, the guy who took all of our crazy "Candid Camera" shots without one single gripe. Working right along with Dan was the Osborne Photographic Studios, who did an excellent job with the photographic work. Need we say that this book wouldn't have been possible without the Taylor Publishing Company. They have given us help all through the year and have tried, right along with us, to make this the best Chief ever. To these special people, as well as to the administration and faculty of Greenville High School, the 1959 Annual Staff says a warm "Thank you."

Yes, the Chief is finished and we're finished too. Yippee!
